Pogerola is served by a public bus line directly from downtown Amalfi. The bus ride is only 20 minutes and the bus will drop you off in front of the restaurant. First, purchase two hourly tickets (€ 2.20 each) at the local tobacconist which is located at the entrance to the main square facing the sea. You can use the same ticket for up to 24 hours.

The bus stop is just across the street in the small square near the ferry landing. The name of the bus company is SITA and it will clearly display 'Pogerola' as a destination banner. If you are in doubt, just ask the driver.

Ask the driver to be dropped off at the 'Osteria La Taverna dei Briganti' in Pogerola. If you miss it, you can walk back from the last stop which is at the end of the road. This bus line just connects the two towns.

Take the stairs down to the restaurant and follow the signage. Pogerola is a hill town so there are quite a few steps, but not too many.

Walk right in and enjoy freshly cooked food and a family atmosphere!

Show your bus tickets to our staff and you will receive a complimentary glass of Limoncello.
